

May 14, 2021

Re: Donations Through Chase Bank

It has come to our attention that JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A. (“Chase”) voluntarily disclosed Chase bank account details and information regarding donation(s) to the Rule of Law Foundation III, Inc. (“Foundation”). The disclosures include donor names, addresses, Chase account number, as well as the dates and amounts of donations to the Foundation. Chase disclosed this information to a third party. None of the information disclosed was obtained from the Foundation and the Foundation did not have an account at Chase.

We are appalled by Chase’s actions. Our legal counsel is sending Chase a cease-and-desist letter ordering them to retract and recover the information they improperly released. We encourage you to contact Chase and demand the same. If you donated to the Foundation through an account at Chase, we encourage you to notify us by emailing support@rolfoundation.org so that we may provide you additional details.

We thank you for your loyal support.